CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this church shall be The Jackson Community Church.

ARTICLE II. OBJECT, FAITH AND POLITY

A. OBJECT. The objects of this church shall be to:

- a. Maintain religious worship
- b. Bind together in a common organization, any who desire to further Christian principles in the community;
- c. Aid in the support of the mission of the church
- d. Aid in making God's will dominant in the lives of the people, individually and collectively, as set forth in the teachings of the Holy Scriptures
- e. Extend, by precept and example, a wholesome influence in community activities
- f. Hold in trust any bequests for the purpose of the church

B. FAITH This church acknowledges Jesus Christ as its head, and finds in the Holy Scriptures, interpreted by the Divine Spirit, through reason, faith and conscience, its guide in matters of faith and discipline.

C. POLITY The government of this church is vested in its members, who exercise the right of control in all its affairs. As a member church of the United Church of Christ, we acknowledge our relationship and obligations to the North Country Association, and the New Hampshire Conference of the United Church of Christ.

We recognize the relationship of the Jackson Community Church to the Protestant Chapel Association, which was established under Bylaws dated 1847, under the authority of the 144th Chapter of the Revised Statutes of the State of New Hampshire. We acknowledge the ownership of the Jackson Community Church building, the attached Parish House and the land on which they sit in Jackson, as belonging to the Protestant Chapel Association.

We acknowledge the obligation of the Jackson Community Church to assume all financial responsibility for the maintenance and upkeep of the above named buildings and any future additions, and of the grounds about them, beyond whatever financial responsibility the Protestant chapel Association is willing and able to assume.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

Persons desiring to join this church, on declaring themselves to be disciples and followers of Christ, may become members by recommendation of the deacons and vote of the church. Recognizing that Christianity knows no boundaries of race or class, and having practiced open membership in the past, we declare it to be our policy that our membership shall be open to all who are qualified, without restriction as to race, class, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, or ethnic background.

A. ADMISSION Members may be admitted in the following ways:

- a. By profession of faith and baptism
- b. On presentation of satisfactory letter of transfer from other churches
- c. By reaffirmation of faith, if letters are not available
- d. On recommendation by the deacons, if baptism is waived because of conviction.

B. RECEPTION Candidates for admission shall be received in the church at a public service, which may be a communion service. They shall:

- a. Assent to the Constitution and Bylaws
- b. Receive the right hand of Christian Fellowship

C. DUTIES Members are expected to:

- a. Be faithful in all the spiritual duties of the Christian life
- b. Regularly attend the services of this church
- c. Give regularly to the support of this church and its interests at home and abroad
- d. Share in its organized work

D. TERMINATION Any member in good and regular standing who desires a letter of transfer and recommendation to another church is entitled to receive it upon written request to either the pastor or the clerk. Membership shall terminate upon written notice of acceptance into such other church.

Members whose addresses have been long unknown, or who, for a period of two years, in spite of kindly approaches, have not communicated with this church or contributed to its support may, by recommendation of the deacons and by vote of the church, be transferred to the status of inactive member. If possible, they shall be informed of such action. From the date of such transfer, they shall cease to be reported on the active membership roll.

E. ASSOCIATE MEMBERS Associate members are those who have satisfied all duties for full membership, but wish to retain their membership in a former church. These persons shall go through all steps for full membership and shall be accepted as associate members. They have the rights of full members except that they may not be elected to those positions reserved for full church members. There will be no letters of transfer at termination of membership.

ARTICLE IV. OFFICERS AND REPRESENTATIVES

A. PASTOR A pastor shall be recommended to the church by a Pastoral Search Committee consisting of seven (7) members and two (2) alternates, nominated by the Council and elected by the members. It shall elect its own chairman and secretary and make use of the denominational guidelines and offices of the N.H. Conference of the U.C.C. The call to the proposed pastoral candidate shall be by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at a meeting called for that purpose.

The relationship between the pastor and the church shall be that of employee and employer while adhering to all state and federal employment regulations and may be terminated by:

- a. The resignation of the pastor being accepted by a majority vote of the members present and voting at a meeting called for this purpose.
- b. A two-thirds vote of all the members present and voting at a meeting called for this purpose.

In either case, sixty (60) days termination notice shall be given.

The financial obligations of the church for the compensation of the pastor shall be in accordance with the guidelines of the N.H. Conference of the U.C.C. and shall be reviewed annually subject to an evaluation of performance.

DUTIES The pastor's duties shall be those, which usually pertain to that office. He/she shall:

- a. Preach the Gospel

C. VICE MODERATOR The Vice Moderator shall be a full member of the church, elected at the Annual Meeting for a term of one year, and shall:

- a. Preside at the business meetings of the church and chair the Council, and have all the authorities and responsibilities of the Moderator, in the absence of the Moderator.
- b. Assume such other duties as the Vice Moderator and Moderator shall agree on.
- c. Not be eligible for reelection, after having served four consecutive years, until a lapse of one year has occurred.

D. CLERK The Clerk shall be a full member of the church, elected at the Annual Meeting for a term of one year, and shall:

- a. Keep a faithful record of the proceedings of the church.
- b. Be a voting member and secretary of the Church Council.
- c. Keep a register of the members of the church, with dates and modes of their reception and removal.
- d. Be responsible for the address records of members.
- e. Keep a record of baptisms and marriages.
- f. Issue letters of transfer notifying the churches to which they are addressed.
- g. Preserve on file all communications and written official reports.
- h. Notify all persons elected to the offices and committees.
- i. Give legal notices of all meetings when such notices are necessary.
- j. Conduct all correspondence so far as this is not otherwise provided for.
- k. Submit annual reports to the New Hampshire Conference.

- i. Be custodian of church records, except those specifically assigned to others, as the Treasurer.
 - m. Perform such other duties as are prescribed by law, or as usually pertain to the office of clerk or secretary of an assembly.
 - n. Not be eligible for reelection, after having served for three consecutive terms, until a lapse of one year as occurred.
- E. TREASURER The Treasurer shall be a full member of the church, elected at the Annual Meeting for a term of one year, and shall:
- a. Receive all moneys of the church, except trust funds specifically assigned by their donors or their estates to the Trustees of Trust Funds.
 - b. Deposit funds received in such depository, as the church council shall order.
 - c. Disburse all funds of the church as approved.
 - d. Keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements, and be bonded, as the Church Council shall prescribe.
 - e. Keep a separate account of all benevolence funds, and remit such funds to the proper recipient.
 - f. Make an annual report to the church members, and such other reports to the Council as it may require.
 - g. Be a member of the Trustees of Trust Funds. In the event of the inability of the Treasurer to function, the chairman of the Finance Committee shall be empowered to sign checks.
 - h. Provide to the Pension Boards of the U.C.C. or such other organizations responsible for the pastor's annuity, the required information each year following the Annual Meeting.
 - i. Not be eligible for reelection after having served for five consecutive terms until a lapse of one year has occurred.
- F. COLLECTOR A collector, who is a member of the church, may be elected annually to collect all pledges, offerings and gifts given to the church, record such moneys and turn them over to the treasurer promptly and obtain a receipt therefore.
- G. AUDITOR An auditor shall be elected at the Annual Meeting for a term of one year, who shall examine the books of the treasurer and the records of the Trustees of Trust funds and document supporting such records in accordance with generally accepted accounting practices and certify as to their accuracy.
- H. CHURCH HISTORIAN A person may be appointed, as Church Historian at such times as seems appropriate.

I. ELECTED REPRESENTATIVES

- a. Delegates and alternates to the New Hampshire Conference of the United Church of Christ shall be elected at each Annual Meeting for a term of one year from the Church membership; the number to be that allowed by the Conference.
- b. Delegates and alternates to the North Country Association shall be elected at each Annual Meeting for a term of one year, the number to be that allowed by the Association.

ARTICLE V. BOARDS

- A. BOARD OF DEACONS There shall be eight (8) or more deacons as recommended by the Board of Deacons and approved by the Church Council, four or more being elected each year for a two-year term. They shall be members of the church and shall be elected at the Annual Meeting. After serving two consecutive full terms, a deacon shall be for one year ineligible for reelection. They shall:

- a. Provide for the Lord's Supper and aid in its administration.
- b. With the Pastor, have general oversight of the charitable needs and spiritual interests of the church and community.
- c. Assist in the work of parish visitations.
- d. With the pastor, meet all candidates for membership for conference and acquaintance and to determine their qualifications for membership.
- e. Act as a membership approval committee and recommend candidates to the church for its vote.
- f. Make an annual survey of the church membership roll and at the annual Meeting submit recommendations to the church regarding necessary revisions.
- g. Authorize deacons' fund disbursements by the church treasurer from the budgeted deacons' fund.
- h. Provide pulpit supplies as needed.
- i. Negotiate the retention of an interim minister to serve following the termination of the pastor and until a replacement assumes his/her duties.

After giving honorable and meritorious service as a deacon for many years and upon recommendation of the pastor and vote of the deacons, a deacon may be elected Deacon Emeritus at the Annual Meeting. A Deacon Emeritus is entitled to attend, to advise, but not to vote at deacon's meetings. A Deacon Emeritus may perform ceremonial duties at his or her own discretion, but does not have deacon's regular responsibility.

B. BOARD OF FINANCE There shall be three members, who shall be members of the church. They shall be elected at the Annual Meeting, one each year, to hold office for three years. After serving two full terms, a member shall for one year be ineligible for reelection. The Treasurer shall be an ex-officio member of the Board. The Board shall:

- a. Have charge of the financial planning for the church.
- b. Begin preparation in August each year of the budget for the following year. All committees and boards needing funds will be expected to submit a written budget of their needs. The results of the pastor's performance evaluation shall be used in determination of the cash salary proposed for the following year.
The proposed salaries of other staff/employees shall also reflect performance evaluations.
- c. Make plans for and carry out the raising of the proposed budget with the approval of the Council.
- d. Submit an itemized church budget for approval at the Annual Meeting.

C. TRUSTEES OF TRUST FUNDS There shall be two Trustees of Trust Funds plus the Treasurer, all of whom shall be full members of the church. The two shall be elected, one each year, at the Annual Meeting for a term of two years.

After serving three full terms, a trustee shall for one year be ineligible for reelection. They all shall be bonded, and the cost of the bonding shall be paid from income from trust funds.

They shall receive all moneys given to the church in trust, and shall invest the principals in stocks, bonds, certificates of deposit, savings accounts or other proper investments with the help and advise of a bank or banks and other reputable investment counselor.

The income from all trust funds shall be administered by the Trustees according to the terms of the wills under which the bequests were made to the church. The Trustees shall report annually to the church in detail on the nature of all investments and the status of trust funds given to the church, including all receipts and expenditures made during the year; and at each meeting of the Council shall report income and expenditures.
